During the war a great number of Navaho worked for the Santa Fe Railroad. While they were working, money was deducted from their pay each month to buy bonds. Sometimes a man might quit work and go away before enough money had been accumulated to buy a bond. If he left no forwarding address, the Railroad did not know where to send his money. All the men listed below have money coming to them from the Railroad. If you find your name and Social Security number among those listed below, you can get your money by going to see Mr. P. M. Coston, Santa Fe Station, Gallup, New Mexico. Be sure to take your Social Security card with you. If you live far from Gallup, go to the nearest trader and ask him to write to Mr. Coston for you. Take your Social Security card with you and show it to the trader so he can be sure that you are the right man.

THE NAVAHO ALPHABET

The Navaho letters always have the same sounds as they have in the words which are given here as examples. If you learn the sound of the letter in the example, then you will know how it sounds in any other word. It is not hard to read Navaho; it is written just as it sounds.

(a) gah, rabbit.	(ao) daolghé, they're called.	(k) kin, house.
(aa) saad, word.	(aoo) 'aoo', yes.	(k') k'ad, now.
(q) sá, old age.	(oi) deesdoi, it is hot.	(l) lq'í, many.
(qq) naadqá, corn.	(b) bááh, bread.	(ł) łq, much; many.
(e) dibé, sheep.	(ch) chidí, automobile.	(m) mq'łi, coyote.
(ee) 'azee', medicine.	(ch') ch'il, plant.	(n) ni, you.
(e) doohes, it will itch.	(d) diné, man.	(s) sis, belt.
(ee) 'áádeé, from there.	(dl) dlóq, prairie dog.	(sh) shishish, it stung me.
(i) shí, I.	(dz) dził, mountain.	(t) tin, ice.
(ii) díi, this.	(g) gah, rabbit.	(t') t'iis, cottonwood.
(i) shí, summer.	(gh) bighaa', his wool.	(tł) tłah, ointment; salve.
(ii) díi, four.	bighoo', his teeth.	(tł') tł'oh, grass.
(o) tó, water.	bighid, his chest.	(ts) tsin, tree; wood.
(oo) tooh, body of water.	bighe', his son.	(ts') ts'in, bone; skeleton.
(q) sq, star.	(h) hai, winter.	(w) 'awéé, baby.
(oo) dlóq, prairie dog.	(') bááh, bread.	(x) yiyiisł, he killed him.
(ai) hai, winter.	(') 'a'áan, hole.	(y) yas, snow.
(aai) shinaaí, my brother.	'e'e'aah, west.	(z) biziiz, his belt.
(ei) 'éi, that one.	bito', his water.	(zh) shizhé, my father.
(eii) 'eii, that one there.	(j) jı, day.	bibéézh, his knife.

When there is a little mark above the letter, then your voice goes up on that sound. Say the first word, and then the second of those we give here as examples.

ni, you	ní, he says.
'azee', medicine	'azéé, mouth.
nił, he is	níł, you are.
doo, not	dóo, and.

ENGLISH SUMMARY

1. The Navaho Institute, convening in New York last month, discusses the Navaho problem in its many aspects and draws up several resolutions recommending appropriate action. Among these are resolutions regarding literacy, schools, welfare, peyote, irrigation, loans to veterans, and equal rights for all racial groups in our democracy.

2. After the close of The Navaho Institute meeting in New York, Sam Ahkeah in company with his secretary Murphy Spencer, went on to Washington where they appeared before the Senate Public Land Indian Affairs Subcommittee. There they discussed the Wheeler-Howard Act (which the Navaho rejected when they voted on it several years ago).

3. The Navaho Returned Students Association draws up a resolution outlining the fact that the resources necessary for heat, light, and power are readily available at Shiprock, and therefore request construction of adequate school and hospital facilities there.

4. Judge Curley, with Dr. G. A. Boyce and Mrs. John Kirk, spoke over the Gallup Radio Station KGAK. They discussed what Gallup means to the Navaho. Judge Curley told about its historical significance to his people, and made recommendations that the town be cleaned up.

5. Chee Dodge leaves an estate valued at over two hundred thousand dollars to his four children.

6. Art work, done by Navaho and Hopi school children, will be exhibited at the Museum of Northern Arizona. It will be judged, and cash prizes will be paid winners.

7. Changing environment since the advent of the white man has made ever increasing demands on the Navaho to adapt themselves apace. Schools were long ago recognized as essential to these cultural adaptations. However, the Navaho have never had enough schools, and even many years ago children were sent far away to get an education. But they learned only the white man's way of life, so they were strangers when they returned to their own people. A demand for schooling on the part of the Navaho has made it necessary to send a number of children away to off-reservation schools this year. However, they will be at home during the summer months, so they will not get out of contact with their people.

8. A "man" turns out to be a woman. "He" registered for Selective Service, but did not turn up for examination. The F.B.I. finally caught "him" and found out that "he" was a woman. "He" even had a wife!

9. A curious Navaho at The Wingate Ordnance Depot found a high explosive shell. He took it home and took it apart! It is a wonder he didn't kill himself.

10. English text accompanies list.

11. Lorenzo Iashie, a Navaho missionary who works among his people in Phoenix, tells about life at the Navaho community on John Jacob's farm in Deer Valley.

12. William Morgan tells the history of Ganado.

13. Another article dealing with increased incidence of venereal diseases in Arizona, and emphasizing the need for prompt and thorough treatment.

14. Three mutes hold up a California motorist, indicating their intent by pantomime.

15. Crownpoint farmers have shown their willingness and ability to help themselves, and have requested AAA help.

16. The purpose of the Red Cross drive in March was to raise funds to help our soldiers still in foreign service, to help disaster victims here and abroad, and to relieve the poverty-stricken in war torn Europe.

17. A discussion of Navaho economic problems.

18. Navaho veterans who have not filed for terminal leave pay have until next September (1947) to do so.

19. A couple entered a California bar, told the owner that they liked the place so much they wanted to buy it, and gave him a check for the sale price. Then they had open house, serving free food and drinks to everyone who came in. The check given in payment was returned by the bank marked "no funds."

20. The April itinerary of the two Veterans Administration contact representatives at Window Rock. By means of this schedule you can find out when a VA man will be in the locality where you live.

21. The Governor of Minnesota signs a bill which makes it legal for Indians of that State to purchase liquor off the reservation, and thus gives them their rightful status as citizens, insofar as the right to drink liquor is concerned.
